3. COMMUNITY-STAFF AND/OR PRINCIPAL'S REPORTS:

3.1 Student of the Month Recognition: Mr. Johnson introduced Mr. Mojica, teacher at North Valley High School. Mr. Mojica presented Jovany Venegas-Vasquez as North Valley's student of the month. Jovany's hard work has allowed his transfer back to OHS. Jovany worked on his credits not only during the week but also on the weekends. He was described as mature, with speech, behavior and attitude. Mr. Mojica explained that North Valley provides a place for students to find their way.

Victoria Powell was also recognized as student of the month for North Valley. Victoria is a hard worker. She stays after and works on her credits during the weekend. Victoria is a junior. She was inspired by the Butte College field trip to be a cosmetologist and also a CNA. Victoria is always asking teachers and staff if they need help, very helpful.

3.2 Principal's Report: Casey Johnson, principal at Alternative Education shared a presentation with the Board of the activities happening at Alternative Education. One of the things that is being done this year is pancake breakfasts. Members of the community are asked to come to NV and share with the student about different career opportunities.

3.3 School Representative Report: Grant Foster and Cody Pendo, leadership students at Orland High School, gave an update on winter sports. Homecoming week is the week of January 30th. FFA rib feed January 28th. Senior interviews are going on. Family Valentine's Dance scheduled for February 11th.

3.4 Certificated Representative/Classified Representative Reports:

Classified Representative Report: Sherylynn Byker has no report. Thrilled with the shift in culture at NV. Sherylynn is CSEA President as of January. There is a great working relationship with the District. Looking at some negotiation dates.

Certificated Representative Report: Mr. Barnhart - hard to believe it's the second week of spring semester. Thank you to OTA teachers present. Thank you to DO for all of the work on the retro, it made a lot of people very happy. Takes a special person to work at NV but looks like things are trending positively. School safety concern, seeing an uptick in gang affiliated things. Willing to help and be proactive.

3.5 Superintendent's Report: Mr. Perry thanked Christine Fears for leading the District in its financial procedures during her time here. Best of luck to her on her new job. The working relationship with GCOE has improved. Mr. Bentz has lots of ideas on how to support us. Gearing up for the second half of the school year. Working hard with the stakeholders.
