Kinder Camp is a 4-week Kindergarten Transition to a School Program that focuses on language development, literacy and social skills for incoming Kindergarteners (including TWI). Mill Street Teachers will teach all Classes.

Children will

- a) Be Introduced to Classroom Routines and Expectations
- b) Participate in Activities That Promote Self-Help Skills and Healthy Habits
- c) Be Introduced to Oral Language Skills
- d) Participate in Activities That Build Fine and Gross Motor Skills
- e) Begin to Build Positive Relationships with Peers

FREE Summer Breakfast and Lunch Program will be offered to all students.

Each class will have up to 20 children, 1 teacher and 1 paraprofessional aide.

No transportation is provided.

Kinder F.A.C.T.T.S. is a four-part series for the parents and children of all incoming Transitional Kindergarten (TK) and Kindergarten (K) students. Parents will meet Mill Street Principal, Lisa Ramirez, teachers and many other Orland Unified School District (OUSD) staff.

Children will

- a) Meet OUSD Staff
- b) Engage in Small Group Activities
- c) Begin Building Positive Relationships with Peers
- d) Have Fun

Parents will:

- 1) Learn About the School System
- 2) Receive Overview of Common Core
- 3) Learn How Academic Goals are Set for Children
- 4) Learn How Parents Play a Vital Role in Student Success
- 5) Create Simple Learning Activities to Practice at Home with Your Child

OUSD staff is eager to engage with parents and other family members to support children's educational experiences.
